2. MATTHEW MEETS JESUS

WHAT YOU NEED: "Matthew Meets Jesus" Activity Page, cardstock, painter's tape, two bowls, plastic coins, and confetti

WHAT YOU DO:

Before the Activity: Copy "Matthew Meets Jesus" on cardstock, one set per small group. Tape the pictures on three different walls around your activity area at child's eye level. Place the coins in one bowl and place it near the picture of Matthew at the tax collector booth. Place the confetti in the other bowl and set it near the picture of Matthew's house.

During the Activity: Point out the three pictures on the wall. Lead children to the picture with Matthew at the tax collector booth. Encourage children to take a few coins from the bowl and hold them. Talk about how Matthew was a tax collector and how he took more money than he was supposed to and kept the extra. Talk about how this made people upset with Matthew. Lead the children to return coins to the bowl and follow you to the next picture.

At the picture of Jesus, talk about how Jesus stopped at Matthew's tax collector booth. Jesus showed love to Matthew and asked Matthew to follow Him. Encourage children to give Jesus a high five!

Lead the children to the picture of Matthew's house. Remind children that Matthew was so happy that Jesus wanted to be his friend that he threw a party to celebrate Jesus at his house. Encourage children to pick up a handful of confetti and throw it in the air as you say the Bottom Line.

After the Activity: Review the Bottom Line.

WHAT YOU SAY:

During the Activity: "In our Bible story today, we heard about a man named Matthew. He was a tax collector. Do you see a picture of Matthew? Follow me. (Lead children to the picture of Matthew at the tax collector booth) Pick up a few coins, friends. As a tax collector, Matthew would take more money than he was supposed to and keep extra for himself! This made people very upset with Matthew. Put the coins back in the bowl. (Pause.) Good job!

"But one day, Jesus stopped to talk to Matthew. (Lead children to the picture of Jesus) Jesus loved Matthew and invited Matthew to follow Him. Let's give Jesus a high five! (Pause.) Yay, Jesus!

"You (point up) will fill me with joy (brush flat hands upward twice) when I am with you (fists together with thumbs on top), Acts 2:28. (Open hands like a book.) (Repeat a few times.)

"Great job! Come to the table. I have something fun for you to make today! It's a pom-pom to celebrate Jesus with."

During the Activity: "Look at all these colors! You need five streamers for your pom-pom. They can be all the same color or different. Pick the colors you want. (Count as the children pick their streamers to make sure they get five.) Great job! Let's stack them like this. (Demonstrate.) Now let's fold them in half like this. (Demonstrate.) I'll wrap them around your craft stick. (Pause.) Put this sticker on. It says, 'You will fill me with joy when I am with you,' Acts 2:28. Now decorate the handle with any of these other stickers. (Pause.) Great job! Give them a little shake and let's say our memory verse together. 'You will fill me with joy when I am with you,' Acts 2:28. (Repeat.) That is so fun to see you celebrate with the colorful pom-poms!"

After the Activity: "Today in our Bible story, Jesus taught us that everyone is invited to be friends with Jesus forever. And that makes me want to celebrate! So let's start the party and celebrate Jesus. Everyone, shake your pom-poms with me. Who can celebrate Jesus? I can celebrate Jesus! Say that with me one more time. Who can celebrate Jesus? (Pull out the plates and cups and set them on the floor in front of you.) There would be special food and drinks. (Pull out the toy food and set it on the plate.) This would be a very special party. When the king had everything ready, he sent his helpers to tell everyone invited that the party was starting. WHAT YOU DO:

Before the Activity: Copy "Lost Son Story Scenes" on cardstock, one per child. Copy "Lost Son Story Stickers" on label paper, one set of stickers per child.

During the Activity: Give each child a paper and ask them to point to the picture with the dad giving the son money. Give each child a sticker with the money bag to add to the picture. Review this part of the story. Next, have children point to the picture of the son feeding the pigs. Give each child a pig sticker to add to the page as you review the next part of the story. Then, have children point to the picture of the dad hugging the son. Give each child a heart sticker to add to that page as you review that part of the story. WHAT YOU SAY:

Before the Activity: "Friends, come find a seat at the table. I love today's Bible story! Jesus told this story because He wanted us to know that God loves US no matter what."

During the Activity: "Your page has several different pictures from our Bible story today. I have a sticker for you to add to each part as we review. The first picture I want you to find is the picture of the dad giving the son money. The son asked his dad for a lot of money so he could leave home. The dad didn't want his son to leave, but he gave him the money anyway. Let's put this sticker on that picture. (Pass out money bag stickers.) The next picture I want you to point to is the picture of the son feeding the pigs. The son had spent all his money and made bad choices, and now he didn't have money to buy food. He was so hungry he thought about eating pig food. Let's add a pig sticker to this picture. (Pass out the pig stickers.) Now point to the picture of the dad hugging his son. The son decided he would go back home and tell his dad he was sorry for the bad choices he made. While he was walking, his dad saw him and ran to him and gave him a big hug! The dad was so happy to see his son again. Let's add a heart sticker to this picture. (Pass out the heart stickers.) The last picture is the dad and son at a party. The son told his dad he was so sorry for the bad choices he made. But the dad loved him no matter what. He was SO happy to have his son home that he threw a huge party to celebrate. Let's add a party horn sticker to this picture. (Pass out the party horn stickers.) Great job completing your pictures."

Grab the box lid by both hands and demonstrate moving your hands back and forth to roll the "lost" ball so it falls through the hole to get "home." Ask children to try to move the "lost" ball around. If they make it through the hole, lead the group to celebrate together.

After the Activity: Review the Bible story.

WHAT YOU SAY:

Before the Activity: "Friends, come sit at the table with me. I have a game for us to play today with this ball and box lid. Let's pretend the ball is the son from our story and we need to get him back home."

(Continue until every child has a turn.) You did a great job getting the ball home!"

After the Activity: "Jesus told this story so we would know God loves us no matter what. The son went away from home with a lot of money his dad gave him. He made bad choices and spent all his money. 5. JOURNAL AND PRAYER

WHAT YOU NEED: Memory Verse Card" from Day One in Bible, journal, and a fun-shaped pen

WHAT YOU DO:

Before the Activity: If you do not have the "Memory Verse Card" in your Bible, copy "Memory Verse Card" on cardstock and cut, one per small group. Place one card in your Bible at

Acts 2:28. Keep this card in your Bible all week.

During the Activity: Lead the children to oink like pigs as they walk to the Small Group spot. Talk about today's Bible story, say the memory verse, and write in the journal.

After the Activity: Pray with the children using the list you made in the journal.

WHAT YOU SAY:

Before the Activity: "It's Small Group time! Let's pretend we are little pigs while we walk to our Small Group spot. What does a pig say? (Pause.) Oink! Oink! That's right! So oink this way and follow me! (Oink like a pig as you lead the children to your Small Group spot.) We made it, little pigs! Let's sit down and talk about today's Bible story. One, two, three, sit down with me!"

During the Activity: (Open the Bible and lay it in front of the children.) "In our Bible story today, Jesus told a story about a son who left home, spent all of his money, and got a job feeding pigs. The son was so hungry, he even thought about eating the pigs' food. The son went back home and told his dad he was sorry for making bad choices. Do you remember what the dad did when he saw his son? (Pause.) Yes! The dad was so happy his son was home that he hugged him, kissed him, and threw a party with lots of food! The dad even gave his son a robe, ring, and shoes. Jesus told this story to teach us that God loves us no matter what. We can always talk to God when we make bad choices, and God will forgive us. God will never, ever, EVER stop loving us! Wow! That is such good news! I'm SO glad we have Jesus to teach us how much God loves us. I want to celebrate Jesus! Yay, Jesus!"

"You can celebrate Jesus, too! So when I ask you, 'Who can celebrate Jesus?' I want you to say, 'I can celebrate Jesus!' Let me hear you say it! Who can celebrate Jesus? I can celebrate Jesus! Yay! (Clap and cheer.) I love celebrating Jesus together.

"Now let's talk about the Bible verse we have been learning. It will help us remember one of the reasons we celebrate Jesus. It says (turn the pages of your Bible to the Memory Verse Card), 'You (point up) will fill me with joy (brush flat hands upward twice) when I am with you (fists together with thumbs on top);' Acts 2:28. (Open hands like a book.)

(Close Bible and lay it down.) "Let's stand up and say those words together with the motions. Just say what I say and do what I do. 'You (point up) will fill me with joy (brush flat hands upward twice) when I am with you (fists together with thumbs on top),' Acts 2:28. (Open hands like a book.)

(Repeat the verse with motions a few times.)

"You sound wonderful! Way to go! Now let's sit down so we can write in our prayer journal and talk to God. (Hold journal and fun-shaped pen.) In the story Jesus told, the son told his dad he was sorry for making bad choices. Have you ever told someone you were sorry for something you did? (Pause.) Let's make a list of things we've said we're sorry about and then we can use the list when we pray. (Remember to print so the children can recognize their names and the letters.) Thank you for making this list with me. It's hard to say, 'I'm sorry,' when we make a bad choice, but when we talk to God about it, He will always love us and forgive us. Let's talk to God right now."

After the Activity: "Would anyone like to pray before I pray? (Give each child who wants to pray the opportunity to do so.) Dear God, sometimes we make bad choices, like when we (read the list the children made). Thank You for sending Jesus to teach us that we can talk to You about everything, and You will always love and forgive us. THAT is good news worth celebrating! You're the best, God. In Jesus' name, amen."

WHAT YOU NEED: "Memory Verse Card" from Day One in Bible, journal, and a fun-shaped pen

WHAT YOU DO:

Before the Activity: If you do not have the "Memory Verse Card" in your Bible, copy "Memory Verse Card" on cardstock and cut, one per small group. Place one card in your Bible at

Acts 2:28. Keep this card in your Bible all week.

During the Activity: Lead the children to skip to the Small Group spot. Talk about today's Bible story, say the memory verse, and write in the journal.

After the Activity: Pray with the children using the list you made in the journal.

WHAT YOU SAY:

Before the Activity: "It's Small Group time! Let's try and skip with joy to our Small Group spot. It's okay if you're just learning how to skip. As long as you're smiling, any kind of skip will do! Just follow me! (Skip with joy as you lead the children to your Small Group spot.) Here we are, little skippers! Let's sit down and talk about today's Bible story. One, two, three, sit down with me!"

During the Activity: (Open the Bible and lay it in front of the children.) "I wonder if the woman in our Bible story skipped with joy to tell people to come and see Jesus after she met Him at the well. I don't know if she skipped, but I do know she was so excited after Jesus told her that He is God's Son and He wanted to be her friend forever that she left her water bucket at the well to go and tell other people to come and see Jesus. And they did! The woman at the well celebrated Jesus, and she got more people to celebrate Jesus. And we can celebrate Jesus too! Who can celebrate Jesus? I can celebrate Jesus! You sure can! And the Bible verse we are learning will help us remember one of the reasons we celebrate Jesus: JOY! It says (turn the pages of your Bible to the Memory Verse Card), 'You (point up) will fill me with joy (brush flat hands upward twice) when I am with you (fists together with thumbs on top),' Acts 2:28.
